

TODAY'S WASHINGTON SOCIETY CHAT

Many Smart Weddings
British Envoy Motoring

EVELYN C. HUNT.

Today's social calendar is marked by a large number of smart weddings, both out-of-town and in the city. Prominent among them will be the marriage of Miss Minna Blair to Richard C. Holliday, Jr., at St. John's Church; of Miss Marian Elizabeth Kutz to Capt. Lewis Tenney Ross at the Church of Our Father; of Miss Rose Rockwell to James Hill Littlejohn at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Theresa Dillon; of Miss Ursula Harrison to Charles Baird at Bevoir House, Bevoir, Va., and of Miss Clover Todd to Allen Welsh Dulles at Woodlands, near Baltimore, Md. The marriage of Miss Minna Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Blair, to Richard C. Holliday, Jr., will be attended by the stream of Washington society, the bride having been one of the most popular members of the younger set since her debut a few seasons ago.

The ceremony will be performed at St. John's Church, the scene of fashionable weddings for more than a century, by the Rev. Roland Cotton Smith. For the ceremony the historic little building will be decorated in green and white, the color motif being carried out in shirazanthemums and ferns.

BRIDE'S WEDDING GOWN IS AN HEIRLOOM

The bride will wear a wedding gown of white satin, draped in rare lace worn by her great-grandmother, Mrs. Levi Woodbury, when she was married in 1820. The gown is now in the possession of the bride's mother, Mrs. Richard C. Holliday, Jr., and is being loaned to her daughter. The train will be of satin and tulle and will fall from a coronet of orange blossoms. The bride will carry white garlands and lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Joy Draper, a cousin of the bride; Miss Elizabeth Prescott, of Cleveland; Miss Virginia Blair, sister of the bride; Miss Adelaide Tuttle, Miss Cecelia McCallum and Miss Anne Everett. They will wear gowns of shell pink tulle, draped over pink satin, with pink tulle hats. They will carry pink roses.

Miss Blair will have as her maid of honor her sister, Mrs. Adolphus Staton, wife of Commander Staton, who is now on sea duty, and as bridesmaid her cousin, Miss Cecelia McCallum.

Mr. Holliday will have his brother, King Holliday, as his best man.

RECEPTION AT BRIDE'S HOME TO FOLLOW CEREMONY

Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents. For the reception the house will be decorated in pink roses. Mrs. Blair will wear a gown of shell pink tulle, draped over pink satin, with pink tulle hats. They will carry pink roses.

For her going-away gown Miss Blair has planned a smart street dress of blue serge with a blue cape to match and a hat of henna velvet.

Among the out-of-town guests who will attend the ceremony and reception will be the parents of the groom, Capt. and Mrs. Richard C. Holliday, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Draper, of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Draper, of Charlottesville, Va.

The marriage of Miss Marian Elizabeth Kutz, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Charles Willauer Kutz, to Capt. Lewis Tenney Ross, son of Col. and Mrs. Charles Willauer Kutz, will be performed at the Church of Our Father, at 5 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. L. M. Powers officiating.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, Col. Kutz, will wear a wedding gown of white Georgeanne with a short train of Georgeanne and satin. Her wedding veil will hang from a cap of old rose point lace, an heirloom in the family. She will carry white bride roses and orange blossoms.

SISTER OF BRIDEGROOM TO BE MAID OF HONOR.

Miss Betsy Ross, sister of the bridegroom, will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Louise Ladue, of Philadelphia; Miss Sue Shattuck, of Brooklyn; Miss Frances Peck, of Washington, and Miss Hester, Boteler, also of Washington.

The groom will have as his best man, Frank Johnson, a classmate of high school days. His ushers will be Capt. Wilson Bingham, Capt. S. D. Sturgis, Capt. C. E. McKee, Capt. R. H. Elliott and Lieut. C. P. Townsley.

Miss Kutz, mother of the bride, will wear brown satin, draped in brown lace and a black lace hat lined with gold.

For her going-away costume the bride will wear a charming street dress of brown and sand, with a cape of sand to match and a duvetyne hat of the same color.

The marriage of Miss Ursula Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Harrison and granddaughter of Mrs. Burton Harrison, of this city, to Charles Baird, Jr., will take place at the splendid Virginia estate of the bride's parents, Bevoir House, Bevoir, Va. The wedding will be a quiet one, attended only by a few intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The ceremony, which will be performed at noon, will be followed by a breakfast at Bevoir. Among the few guests will be several Washington friends of Miss Harrison. Miss Harrison is a niece of Francis Burton Harrison, governor general of the Philippines.

CLOVER TODD TO WED ALLEN DULLES IN MARYLAND.

The wedding of Miss Clover Todd, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Henry Alfred Todd, to Allen Welsh Dulles, son of the Rev. A. M. Dulles, of Auburn, N. Y., and Mrs. Dulles, will be attended by a number of prominent society people from Washington. The groom is a grandson of Mrs. John W. Foster, of Washington, and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansing, who will be among the guests. Included among the guests also will be Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bacon James and their daughter, Miss Teresa James. Mrs. James is a cousin of the bride.

The ceremony will be performed at Woodlands, the Maryland estate of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. John D. Gilman, near Baltimore. Miss Lisa Gilman Todd, sister of the bride, is to be maid of honor and John Foster Dulles will act as his brother's best man.

Mrs. George Eckels had guests luncheon with her yesterday afternoon at the Cafe St. Marks.

British Press Starts Crusade
To Have Prince of Wales Wed
English Girl in Love Marriage

London, Oct. 15.—Pressure on the Prince of Wales to marry an English girl is growing in volume.

The London Times in a remarkable editorial took the unprecedented course of advising the royal family not to marry the prince off to a foreign princess. The other papers, of Viscount Northcliffe have reprinted the editorial, which is indicative that the newspaper leader is now making the future monarchy of the country his own especial care.

British Society Excited.

The Globe has also joined in the editorial crusade to have the prince choose his bride from the British aristocracy, saying: "Our greatest kings have married with the daughters of their greatest subjects, and in the blood of the house of Windsor runs the strain of many noble families of our own land."

The bringing to prominence of the prince's matrimonial affairs has caused a tremendous excitement in British society. Speculation on the bride is all the rage.

List of Possibilities.

Society girls today recalled that at the beginning of the year the prince was reported smitten on Lady Dorothy Cavendish, third daughter of the Duke of Devonshire. But since then she was married to Harold MacMillan, the son of the publisher.

Various reasons for the failure of the prince to marry her, including royal disapproval, are Lady Dorothy's known disinclination and the duke's unwillingness to have his daughter take precedence in state functions over the seniors of her own family.

Norfolk, the premier duke of England, is a bachelor. But the Dukes of Westminster, Beaufort and Hamilton each have one marriageable daughter. The Duke of Abercorn, two, and the Duke of Buccleuch, five. The only other ducal possibility is the Lady Mary summer, has returned to her Washington home.

Liouboimir Mihailovitch, former minister of Serbia to this country, has arrived in Washington and taken an apartment at the Hotel Washington for a month.

COL. AND MRS. TENNEY ROSS ENTERTAIN AT DINNER.

Col. and Mrs. Tenney Ross entertained at a dinner at the Army and Navy Club last evening in compliment to Miss Marian Elizabeth Kutz, whose marriage to their son, Capt. Lewis Tenney Ross, will take place today. The parents of the bride, Col. and Mrs. Charles W. Kutz, and the wedding party were the only guests.

Miss Adelaide Tuttle, who is to be one of the bridesmaids at the marriage today of Miss Minna Blair and Richard Holliday, was hostess yesterday afternoon at a luncheon given for the bride-elect and her attendants.

The guests were Miss Virginia Blair, Miss Cecelia McCallum, Miss Anne Everett, Miss Joy Draper, of Charlotte, N. C.; Miss Elizabeth Prescott, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Adolphus Staton, sister of the bride who will be matron of honor. The bride party was entertained at dinner at the Cafe St. Marks last evening by Miss Blair's brother, Montgomery Blair, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Corby are being congratulated upon the birth of a son, Karl W. Corby, Jr.

Senator and Mrs. P. C. Knox have been spending a few days at Atlantic City, stopping at the Hotel Traymore.

Miss Margo Fiske, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. de Rheim Fiske, will spend the weekend at the country home of her parents in Virginia.

Mrs. Henry Kirke Porter and Miss Ann Hegeman have returned to Washington and are at Wardman Park Hotel for the autumn. They will leave their street home for the winter later in the season.

Former Senator Luke Lea and Mrs. Lea are in Washington for an extended visit.

Miss Helen Richmond, of London and New York, is a guest of Mrs. H. C. Covert.

Many a Pretty Face Spoiled by Pimples

Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other parts of the body.

Not only are these pimples and spots disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting irritation and pain. Sometimes they foretell Eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other annoyances that burn like flames of fire, and make you feel that your skin is ablaze.

When these symptoms appear on any part of the body, take prompt steps to rid the blood of these disorders. And the one remedy which has no equal as a blood cleanser is S.S.S., the purely vegetable blood medicine, which has been on the market for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

If you are afflicted with this form of skin disease do not expect to be cured by lotions, ointments, salves and other local remedies, as they can not possibly reach the source of the trouble, which is in the blood. Begin taking S.S.S. today, and write a complete history of your case to our chief medical adviser who will give you special instructions, without charge. Surplus of $584,742.75 Is Added to D. C. Fund in Treasury.

Revenues of the District government during the past fiscal year exceeded disbursements by $584,742.75, increasing the District's surplus revenue in the Treasury to $4,648,666.63, according to Daniel J. Donovan, District auditor, in his annual report to the Commissioners, made public yesterday.

The indebtedness of the District, represented by its 3.65 per cent bonds, amounted to $2,152,626.64 on June 30 last, according to the report, having been reduced from $5,777,000, which was outstanding at the end of the 1919 fiscal year.

Donovan called attention of the Commissioners to the low pay prevalent in his department.

"The salaries paid in this office are entirely too low for the character of service rendered by the employees," read the report, "and it is hoped that fair and reasonable increases will be granted by Congress by the beginning of the fiscal year 1922."

"It is becoming increasingly more difficult to retain competent service under the present salary schedule."
